

Liquor cos flay Delhi tourism on selection

Alcohol body Confederation of Indian Alcoholic Beverage Companies (CIABC) has accused the Delhi Tourism and Transportation Development Corporation (DTTDC) of selectively favouring a list of 20 brands only while procuring its alcoholic products. It has been several months since the city has been facing a shortage in the supply of alcohol brands as well as options. Now, the body has said that many of its members have not been able to sell their brands. For instance, Terai Gin from Globus Spirits is not available in the market, similarly, recently listed Sula Vineyards, which has 24 registered brands, is only able to sell four of its brands in the city. Allied Blenders & Distilleries (ABD), makers of mass-premium brand Officer's Choice whisky, has five brands registered, but only Officers Choice Blue is being sold, while brands like Sterling Reserve and even Officers Choice are not. VARUNI HOSLA
