

‘Cut liquor duty gradually under India-UK FTA’

THE APEX BODY for liquor firms Confederation of Indian Alcoholic Beverage Companies has urged the government to gradually reduce customs duties on British alcoholic beverages under the proposed India-UK free trade agreement, and not in an unfair manner as that could impact domestic players.